

February Roundup

Cont'd from Page 4

- A Diversity workshop is 7:30 a.m. - 1 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 4, in Corbett Center.
- The Black Students Association presents a Soulful Remix 6 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 7, in the Corbett Center Auditorium. The BSA will bring in two artists that take popular songs and remix them into gospel songs.
- The BSA Open Mic Night is 7 to 10:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 9, in Corbett Center, with poetry, storytelling, including slam poetry from Dana Gilmore.
- Speed Dating — 6 to 10 p.m. Monday, Feb. 13, at the Aggie Underground in Corbett Center, with music, food, and other things for the students. Open to all students.
- A screening of the movie "Glory Road" is 7 p.m. Friday, Feb. 17, in Corbett Center, with introduction by 1966 Texas Western basketball team member Nevil Shed.
- The Black Student Association will host an open forum 7 to 10 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 21, in the Faculty Senate Chambers.
- Black History Month Banquet is 8 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 23, for all members of the BSA and NMSU students.
- The Black Students Association presents a screening of Spike Lee's film, "Crooklyn" at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 29, in Corbett Center.

EPCC Black History Month — El Paso Community College will host events in February in celebration of Black History Month. All events are 7 to 9 p.m. at Transmountain Campus Forum Theater, Gateway North and Diana. Admission is free. Information: 831-6383.

- Monday, Feb. 6: "Choir Night: A Message in Song," featuring local church and community choirs.
- Tuesday, Feb. 7: Jazz Night with Billy Townes and Mike Hamilton.
- Saturday, Feb. 11: Phil Darius Wallace presents "An Evening with Frederick Douglass."
- Monday, Feb. 13: "In the Spotlight" with speaker Brig. Gen. Stephen Twitty.

A Frederick Douglass student art display runs through February at the Transmountain Campus, and various Black History Month exhibits featured at all EPCC campus libraries.

Museum of History African American Month — El Paso Museum of History, 510 N. Santa Fe, hosts two free performances in honor of February as African American History Month. Information: 351-3588 or elpasotexas.gov/history.

- Nancy Lorenza Green presents the interactive "Music from the Heart" at 2 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 11. Green performs on traditional African percussion instruments, and people will be invited to engage in playful movement and create ensembles as they move to the beat of the African drums.
- The Young El Paso Singers, conducted by Cindy Jay, presents "African-Americans: The Songs that Made them Strong" at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 23, with ballads, spirituals and story songs.

Black History Month Showcase — Fort Bliss Family and MWR host a showcase of African American visual and performing arts 5 to 9 p.m. Friday, Feb. 17, at the Centennial Club 11199 Sgt E. Churchill on Fort Bliss, with an Afro-centric cultural art display and dancers, inspirational poetry readings, dramatic interpretations, singers and an afro-centric fashion show. Childcare is available at an hourly rate, for children registered with CYSS. Admission is free and the public is invited. Information: Darline Goyea, 568-6353 or darline.goyea.naf@mail.mil, or Cathie Garner, 309-8439 or cathie.garner@us.army.mil.

A "Soul Food" dinner buffet offered 5 to 7 p.m. Cost: $9.95.

'African-American History: A Journey Through the Music' — Young El Paso Singers, conducted by Cindy Jay, will host a concert in honor of African American History month 7 to 8:30 p.m. Friday, Feb. 24, at Western Hills United Methodist Church, 524 Thunderbird. The story, featuring music and brief narrations, begins in Africa, travels across the ocean to America, traces auctions and slavery of the African, and continues through the early days of the civil rights movement, culminating with Martin Luther King, Jr. The singers will be accompanied on piano by Ruben Gutierrez. Admission is free. Information: 227-6002 or youngelpasosingers.org.

The singers will also present the free performance "African-Americans: The Songs that Made them Strong" at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 23, El Paso Museum of History, 510 N. Santa Fe.

'Ancestral Voices' — A Black History Month celebration to honor of ancestors through music, dance, visual arts and spoken word is 1 to 4 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 25, at El Paso Public Library Main Branch, 501 N. Oregon. Sponsored by Imani with support from the library and local artists. Admission is free; free parking at El Paso City Hall parking lot. Information: 543-5433 or 564-9218.

Black History Month Parade and Rally — The annual Inter-Club Council Black History Month Parade begins at 10 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 25, at Montana and Pershing and travels east on Montana to Copia then south to Missouri ending at Mary Webb Park. The rally immediately follows the parade noon to 3 p.m. in Mary Webb Park, with vendor booths, family activities and entertainment. Admission is free. Information: 740-7826 or interclubcouncil.org.

Southern New Mexico

'Nifty Fifties' benefit — The fundraiser for the Rio Grande Theatre, 211 N. Downtown Mall in Las Cruces is Sunday, Jan. 29, with classic cars lining Main Street, '50s food and fashion show, and performance by DooWop band "Remember Then." Master of Ceremonies is Jim Shearer. The seven-piece group is in their fourth year together and specializes in top favorites of the era. Outdoor events begin at 1 p.m. with concert at 2 p.m. Tickets: $10. The public is encouraged to come dressed in their favorite 50s garb. Information: (575) 523-6403 or riograndetheatre.com.

Hot rods line Main Street for an automotive blast from the past, courtesy of the People's Recording Company and the locally produced feature film "Desert Demonz," along with photo ops with Marilyn Monroe, James Dean and Elvis.

Mikey's Sheesh-ka-Deesh — Mikey's Place, 3100 Harrelson in Las Cruces, hosts an artistic dance and music celebration 7 to 10 p.m. Friday, Feb. 3, as part of "For The Love of Art" Month, dessert, coffee, tea and wine. Admission; $10. Information: (575) 644-9561 or mikeysplacem.com.

There will also be an historical display of African American artists with information on each artist, and works by Las Cruces artist Georjeanna Feltha in honor of Black History Month.

Las Colcheras Quilt Show — The 11th

Please see Page 6

BELLY DANCE CLASSES WITH NISREEN

Kids class ages 4-9, Friday 4:30-5:30pm @ $5/class.
Potential for kids ages 10-14, Saturday 1:30-2:30pm @ $5/class.
Mind Body Studio, 631 N. Resler, Ste. B201. (Westside)
Please call 204-7228.

Class ages 15+, Wednesday 7:00-8:00pm @ $7/class for non-YWCA members; special rate for YWCA members! YWCA, 9135 Stahala (NE). Join us for a fun workout in a supportive environment and receive the mental and physical benefits that dance can provide! Instructor trained in Turkey, Egypt & Morocco. For either class information/to register, please call 204-7228.

Club 101  9515 Viscount

Celebrando el dia del Amor y de La Amistad

Jueves - Febrero 9, 2012 (Juebebes)

Presenta en Concierto Directo desde LAS VEGAS NEVADA

Zulema Villela
"La Sirenita"

Acompañada del Mariachi Real de Jalisco

Show Empieza: 8:00PM Puertas Abren: 7:00PM

Costo: $10.00 Dlls. por persona

Venta de Boletos: (915) 244-8751
o en la entrada del Night Club

Botana Gratis de 7:00PM a 8:00PM
Musica Local para Bailar

 Especial de Licor durante el Show

Reservaciones al
(915) 544-2101

Presente un Volante y reciba 30% de descuento en su primera bebida

10th annual Mountain Top
Mardi Gras
In the Clouds...Family Style!

February 17th, 18th & 19th
Bring the kids for the PARTY of the season!

Friday, February 17th

Cajun' Cooking Contest ♦ Silent Auction
Crazy Hat Walking Parade

♦ Fais-Do-Do (family dance) ♦ Lots of Live Entertainment

Saturday, February 18th

Cajun Food ♦ Kid's Activities ♦ Music & Entertainment ♦ Mardi Gras Parade
(2 PM) ♦ Zumba Dance Party ♦ Cakewalk

Sunday, February 19th

Battle of the Bands ♦ Vendors ♦ Activities ♦ Fashion Show

Cloudcroft, New Mexico

575.682.2733

1.866.UPHIGH7

www.cloudcroft.net

Paid for by the Cloudcroft Lodgers Tax Photo by Gary Woods